About the Hilliard Education Foundation

The Hilliard Education Foundation (HEF) helps students and teachers do more through grants and scholarships. Our primary mission is to support meaningful learning opportunities and innovative education programs that benefit over 16,000 Hilliard City School Students.

Grants

Over $1.4 million in grant funding has been dispersed to teachers and classrooms throughout the district to support innovative learning and student success.

Scholarships

Since 1989, HEF has awarded over $420,000 to Hilliard City School students to support their higher education pursuits. Scholarships are provided by generous community donors who seek to help our graduates find success in college and beyond.

Innovative Education

HEF strives to be a valued partner by collaborating on District priorities like the McVey Innovative Learning Center (MILC). Through private donations and corporate grants, HEF was able to facilitate more than $75,000 in financial support for the MILC.

Marketing Reach

The Hilliard Education Foundation has a reach across social media, print and web platforms. The event will be heavily promoted through:

Dedicated E-mail Blasts

Announcements and E-mail Blasts to the Hilliard City School District Community

Social Media (Facebook and Twitter)

Community Calendars

ThisWeek News

The potential reach of this exposure is:

Website	10,000+ visitors/year.
ThisWeek News	22,000+ distribution
School District	1,100+ teachers plus all additional support staff 15,800 students and families
Social Media	6,000+ combined followers
